CALL FOR SPEAKER AND
SESSION PROPOSALS

Call Deadline: 5df] % , 2018

Rewards NW, the only total rewards conference in the region, is looking for speakers with an expertise in the total rewards arena to present stimulating and insightful topics. Rewards NW is a biennial event with the next conference being held on September 20, 2018 in Portland, OR. For more information about the event, visit rewardsnw.com.

Rewards NW provides education and practical tools for the total rewards professional. It is an opportunity for human resources professionals to focus on their development and skills for the advancement of their career. The conference brings total rewards oriented professionals together to learn best practices and to network with their peers.

The Audience

Our 2016 conference saw 270+ total rewards professionals come together for an exciting day of learning and networking. Attendees included professionals who specialize in employee compensation, benefits & work life, executive and sales compensation in the private, public, non-profit and academic sectors. Our attendees ranged from CEOs, Vice Presidents, Directors, Managers and Analysts. The majority of our attendees were from the Pacific Northwest but we had some attendees come from as far away as Florida, New Hampshire and Maine!

Rewards NW is seeking a variety of presentation topics for consideration in the following areas:

- Data visualization strategies for compensation professionals
- Legal Update – Pay Equity, FLSA, Paid time off
- Performance Management
- Employee engagement
- Unique benefit solutions
- Sales Compensation strategies
- Economic outlook
- Employee well-being and/or financial health – demographics and trends
- Developing a comprehensive employee value proposition
- Executive Comp (101, trends, issues, challenges)
- Rewards across a multigenerational workforce
- Or other total rewards trends and ideas

Rewards NW is seeking the following session types:

Case Study/Speakers (for inclusion as a part of a session or panel)

Rewards NW seeks new and original company case studies from across the region to share case studies of employee compensation, benefits & work life, executive and sales compensation in the private, public, non-profit and academic sectors.

Breakout Sessions (45-60 minutes) – Panel sessions featuring speakers and a case study.

Varies between 1-4 speakers per panel session focusing on an overarching theme or case study. Speakers to share/demonstrate best practices with the audience. Opening remarks/presentation (optional) followed by moderator-driven question and answers (determined in advance) with 10-15-minute audience question and answer session to conclude the session.

Instructions for Submitting a Proposal

For all of the above proposals, please submit the following in our online submission form.

- Title 20 words maximum
- Abstract 500 words maximum
- Learning Objectives Please list 3-4 lessons/insights the audience will take away from your presentation and be able to use in their work
- Submitter's Contact Information The "submitter" is the individual completing the online form, and who will be available to answer any logistical questions about the submission, regardless of whether they are the proposed speaker/presenter.

Selection Process

We strive to offer a balanced program of total reward topics and will be selecting proposals that best fit within the framework of the conference. Rewards NW seeks to educate its audience, presentation selections will be made based upon desired topics, flow of content, educational value and understanding of the content. Rewards NW organizers will set the time for each presentation in order to optimize the sequencing of the flow of content.

If you are a Selected Speaker

If you are selected as a speaker, you will receive a free ticket to attend the conference. Travel related expenses, meals (outside those specified as provided at the conference) and accommodations are the responsibility of the speaker.
