

HR Network

Your local, targeted job posting board for human resource positions in Oregon and Washington

Why Post on the HR Network?

- Your job posting reaches candidates who are currently employed, as well as those in an active job search. In addition to the job board website, the postings are emailed to a subscribed mailing list of 4,000 Oregon and Washington human resources professionals.
- It saves recruiters' time. Because the HR Network is a very targeted local job board, you get your postings to just the right candidates. While a national job board may bring in a huge volume of candidates, the HR Network job board brings in local, qualified, higher quality candidates. Recruiters spend less time sorting through volumes of unqualified resumes.
- It's cost effective. Job postings start at just $50 for 30 days.
- I'm standing by to assist. If you would like help setting up your company profile or posting a job, just send me an email. I'm happy to help!
